

A visit to RHS Wisley
6 June, 2009

Wisley, in Surrey, is the flagship garden of the Royal Horticultural Society. As well as model gardens filled with everything from roses to bonsai trees, the gardens are home to field trials where gardening techniques and new varieties are developed.

